

Photography Careers

Across

4. Always aware of the season, this kind of photographer starts the trends.
6. Unlike photographers of the commercial kind, their interest is a personal vision.
7. Always capturing life behind the scenes, these guys are part documentary and part Hollywood.
8. Achieving great heights allows for ethereal photography.
9. Probably the riskiest photo career, this type of photography was only done after the portable darkroom was invented.
10. Unseen by most city-folk, this kind of photographer is interested in getting out.
13. Scientists at heart, this kind of photographer can be found with test tubes more than studio lights.
15. In the action and getting the shot, these guys take small risks to feed our thirst for modern-day heroes.
16. This kind of photographer is equally interested in the person they are photographing as the way the image looks.
17. Eating caviar and sitting by the beach is often a days work for this kind of photographer.

Down

1. If it were not for these photographers, TMZ would be lost!
2. Photographers who are there for the important moments.
3. Using the lens as a witness, these guys capture the world near and far.
5. Exploring the deeper layers of a world we see but really don't know, their images are often breathtaking.
11. Their clients are usually trying to sell wares of their own.
12. Interested in the local and global flavor, this kind of photographer usually works with a small table studio.
14. These photographer want to get up close and personal.
18. These thrill-seeking photographers are often interested in the activities that they are capturing.