8th Grade Autobiographical Self-Portrait

Name: _____

Section: _____

Date: _____

According to Deanna Lawson, an autobiographical self-portrait is “an occasion for the artist to construct her representation through her own medium, be it a camera or a paintbrush or what have you. It’s an opportunity to declare who you are visually and who you aspire to be.”

The following is not going to be shared with anyone. Please answer honestly.

List 3 words/things that represent who you are:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

List 3 words that represent how you think others see you:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What about yourself are you most proud of?

What about yourself would you want to change/or are you the least proud of?

On the back, explain what you want to do for your autobiographical self-portrait project (words and/or pictures are fine!)
